

Dress up day - 27th January, 2017

Books came alive as children as well as teachers dressed up in various book characters.

The entire school was in colourful costumes, each displaying creativity at its best.

The children spoke about the character they dressed up and eagerly listened to their friends as well.

