Raised in a musical family sir Joshua Feinberg, an American,

was introduced to music at a very early age and he was initiated to Indian classical music by his teacher Dan Weiss and since then there has been no stopping him. Calling music one of the greatest creations of human beings, he speaks passionately about its ability to transcend everything material and go straight to the listener's soul.

Shri Shubh Maharaj ji is an ambitious, hardworking and polite upcoming tabla player with lots of hopes. His speciality is the pure BENARAS GHARANA style of playing. The style of Pt. Kishan Maharaj Ji can be easily identified in him.
